island, it is also revealed that Aline has personal reasons for going to Shadow Island.

As the pilot prepares to land, the sea plane is attacked by a strange, unknown force. Carnby and Aline have only one way out - parachute to safety.

Carnby lands safely in an abandoned yard, but Aline narrowly misses death while landing on the roof of a vast mansion.

INTRODUCTION

Edward Carnby, private eye of the paranormal, is back!

When his best friend, Charles Fiske, is found dead off the coast of Shadow Island, Carnby seeks revenge. Carnby contacts Frederick Johnson and agrees to take over the investigation that led to Fiske's demise.

Johnson introduces him to Aline Cedrac, a young University professor, who specializes in ancient Indian languages. Their mission is to find the three mysterious tablets and translate the undecipherable inscriptions. During the flight to the

EDWARD CARNBY

Of unknown parentage, Carnby was placed in Saint Andrew's orphanage by social workers.

Carnby now works for an agency founded in 1982 by Charles Fiske, a former member of the top secret FBI investigative department, Bureau 713. As Fiske and Carnby are experts in the paranormal investigation into the supernatural is the basis of their activities.

Carnby is not interested in convincing skeptics nor raising awareness; his personal mission is to combat the dark forces at work around us using only his own mortal powers.

He does not possess the parapsychological powers to make him supernatural, his real gift lies in his ability to recognize evil at a glance and instinctively knows how to deal with it.

To some, Carnby may appear cold, indifferent and even obsessive. The few friends he has, however, recognize his integrity and completely trust him.

ALINE CEDRAC

Aline Cedrac was born on June 30th, 1974 in the Boston suburb of Lexington. She never knew her father, as her mother, Mary, never revealed his identity to her. Mary Cedrac returned to France in 1992 after an argument, but Aline elected to stay in Boston to finish her anthropology studies. Mary Cedrac died in an accident in February 1993 and, despite extensive research, Aline has yet to discover her father's identity.

Aline proved to be a brilliant student; her extraordinary memory, along with her deep intuition and diligence, helped her earn a PhD at the age of 24.

She became particularly interested in the study of the Abkani Indian tribe and the recent discovery of the tribe's writing system, which dates back several thousand years. The discovery, which was attributed to Obed Morton, revolutionized the small world of Indian anthropology. Furthermore, it is also the subject of her forthcoming book, which was funded by a research grant.
