If you experience any of the following symptoms while playing a video game - dizziness, altered vision, eye or muscle twitches, loss of awareness, disorientation, any involuntary movement, or convulsions - IMMEDIATELY discontinue use and consult your physician before resuming play.

WARNING to owners of projection televisions

Do not connect your PlayStation game console to a projection TV without first consulting the user manual for your projection TV, unless it is of the LCD type. Otherwise, it may permanently damage your TV screen.

LAWYERS' BLURB

The bike wrecks portrayed in this video game would really hurt, probably cause a serious set of broken or torn body parts, and possibly kill you, if they happened in real life. Courier Crisis is a game designed to give you the opportunity to do things that you CAN'T DO in real life. Get it?

The city is a DANGEROUS place to ride a bike. Bike tricks are cool. If you wanna fly thru the air on your bike, do it. But start out small, with bunny hops over curbs and stuff. In other words, do this at home (bike tricks) but practice first.

Dis'n the cops. Running over peds. That just doesn't fly in real life. This is a GAME! Get it?

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT

As a bike Courier, your job is to pick up and deliver packages in a timely manner. Start by looking for the ped with the package, and pick it up by riding up to him/her. You can tell which one he/she is by the pickup icon (a giant yellow arrow) over his/her head.

Once you have the package in your sweaty hands, you need to find the drop off ped. He/she's easy to spot - just look for the giant dollar sign above his/her head. Ride by him/her to drop off the package and collect the green.

Each delivery mission is paid only on timely completion. If you finish when your timer's in the green, you get paid full price. Yellow gets you 75% of the full amount, and red gets you 50%. If you can't get the job done before the red's out, you're fired. At that point your time's your own. Do what you want.

DEFAULT CONTROL SUMMARY

You can modify the controls on the Controller Options Screen by selecting the controller icon from the Main Menu.

PEDAL: Double tap this button for speed burst, (see speed burst power up on page 15).

BRAKE: Double tap this button to lock up your brakes for maximum stopping power.

SHARP TURN: Use this to carve a sharper turn.

BUNNY HOP: Hold this to charge up your bunny hop power. Release to jump. When jumping off ramps, release the bunny hop button right as you leave the ramp for maximum air time.

STEERING: Directional Buttons LEFT/RIGHT

WHEELIE: Directional Button DOWN.
Ride wheelies over cars.

PUNCH: R1 or L1:

KICK: R2 or L2:

RUDE GESTURE: R1 & R2 Use this to express your feelings. Watch out, the cops hate it!

MAIN MENU

The Main Menu offers the following five options. Use Directional Buttons Left/Right to highlight an option. Then use X to select it.

GO: Select this to go to the 'hood selector screen.

See Hood Selector, on page 9, for more information on the different neighborhoods.

GT BIKE SHOP: Select this to go to the GT bike shop.

You can go to the Bike Shop any time the Main Menu is available to you. Once there, you can trade your bike in on a different model. You get full trade-in value on your present bike, so all you have to do is come up with the difference. The cashflow figure tells you the combined value of your trade-in and your available cash.

AUDIO & MUSIC

OPTIONS: Select this to adjust the audio mix & select music style.

Press Directional Buttons LEFT and RIGHT to move between the different options, and press Directional Buttons UP or DOWN to raise or lower the volume or to choose a different musical selection.

MEMORY CARD: Select this to Load/Save a game or view credits.

You can save your game onto a memory card so you can stop for some of life's little necessities, such as eating, sleeping or pulling the scabs off your new tattoo. Simply follow the on-screen instructions to save your game. Please note that Courier Crisis cannot erase or overwrite save game files from another (non-Courier Crisis) game. Make sure a slot is available before starting a game, since you will not be able to save your game once you have started playing and you have no slots available on your memory card.

If you do not have a memory card, Courier Crisis will automatically issue a password whenever you finish a level, so you can resume where you left off. Write the password down (do we really have to tell you that?) so you can enter it when it's time to start playing again. Use the Directional Buttons UP/DOWN to select letter, Directional Buttons LEFT/RIGHT to change letter and press the X to select.

CONTROLLER OPTIONS: Select this to change the default button configuration.

Follow the on-screen instructions to select one of the alternative keypad configurations.

'HOOD SELECTOR

(City Area Selector)

Select the City Area for your next set of delivery missions. If an area has police tape over the icon, then it's closed for that level. If there is a thumbs up icon over the graphic then you've already successfully played that mission. (You can still replay it for a better time and more money, see Restarting a Level page 11). You must complete all the areas in order to progress to a new level. If you want to do a few practice runs, press L1 & R2 to go into the practice level. During a mission, if you press the Select button and, while holding it down, press and hold down the Start button for two or more seconds, the game returns to the title screen.

CIVIC CENTER: The financial district, the hub of the city. Lots of hills and secret alleyways. Watch out for the cabs, they couldn't care less if they run you down.

CHINA TOWN: Lots of crazy hills, and narrow streets. The maneuverability of a BMX bike is usually best for this area.

WATERFRONT: Watch out for the sheriffs in this beach town - they don't care for your type. There are a lot of fast wide open streets here so the fastest mountain bike you can afford would serve you best. The mongrel beach dogs are killers. Use your kick to whack 'em, or bunny hop over an oncoming car; they'll become grill work in no time.

SKID ROW: This is a BAD part of town. Drive-by shootings take out peds constantly. Vicious packs of junkyard dogs rove the streets. Get in and out as fast as you can. Don't forget the Air 360° time power up for higher levels. It's crucial.

INDUSTRIAL ZONE: Massive radioactive chemical spills in the '80's made this area a little weird. Not to mention the secret Army experiments in the '50's, some say they've been doing DNA experiments with aliens and house cats. Don't play with the fire, you'll burn your fingers.

RESTARTING A LEVEL

You can restart a level from the following menus.

PAUSE MENU: Press START at any time during gameplay to get this menu. While the game is paused, you have the option to Continue, Quit or Restart. To continue with the mission, press the Start button. To Quit the mission, press the Select button. The message "Really Quit?" appears. If you press the Select button again, the game will return to the Main Menu. If you wish to restart the mission, press the  button.

BUSTED MENU: If you've been busted you get this menu, 'kay?

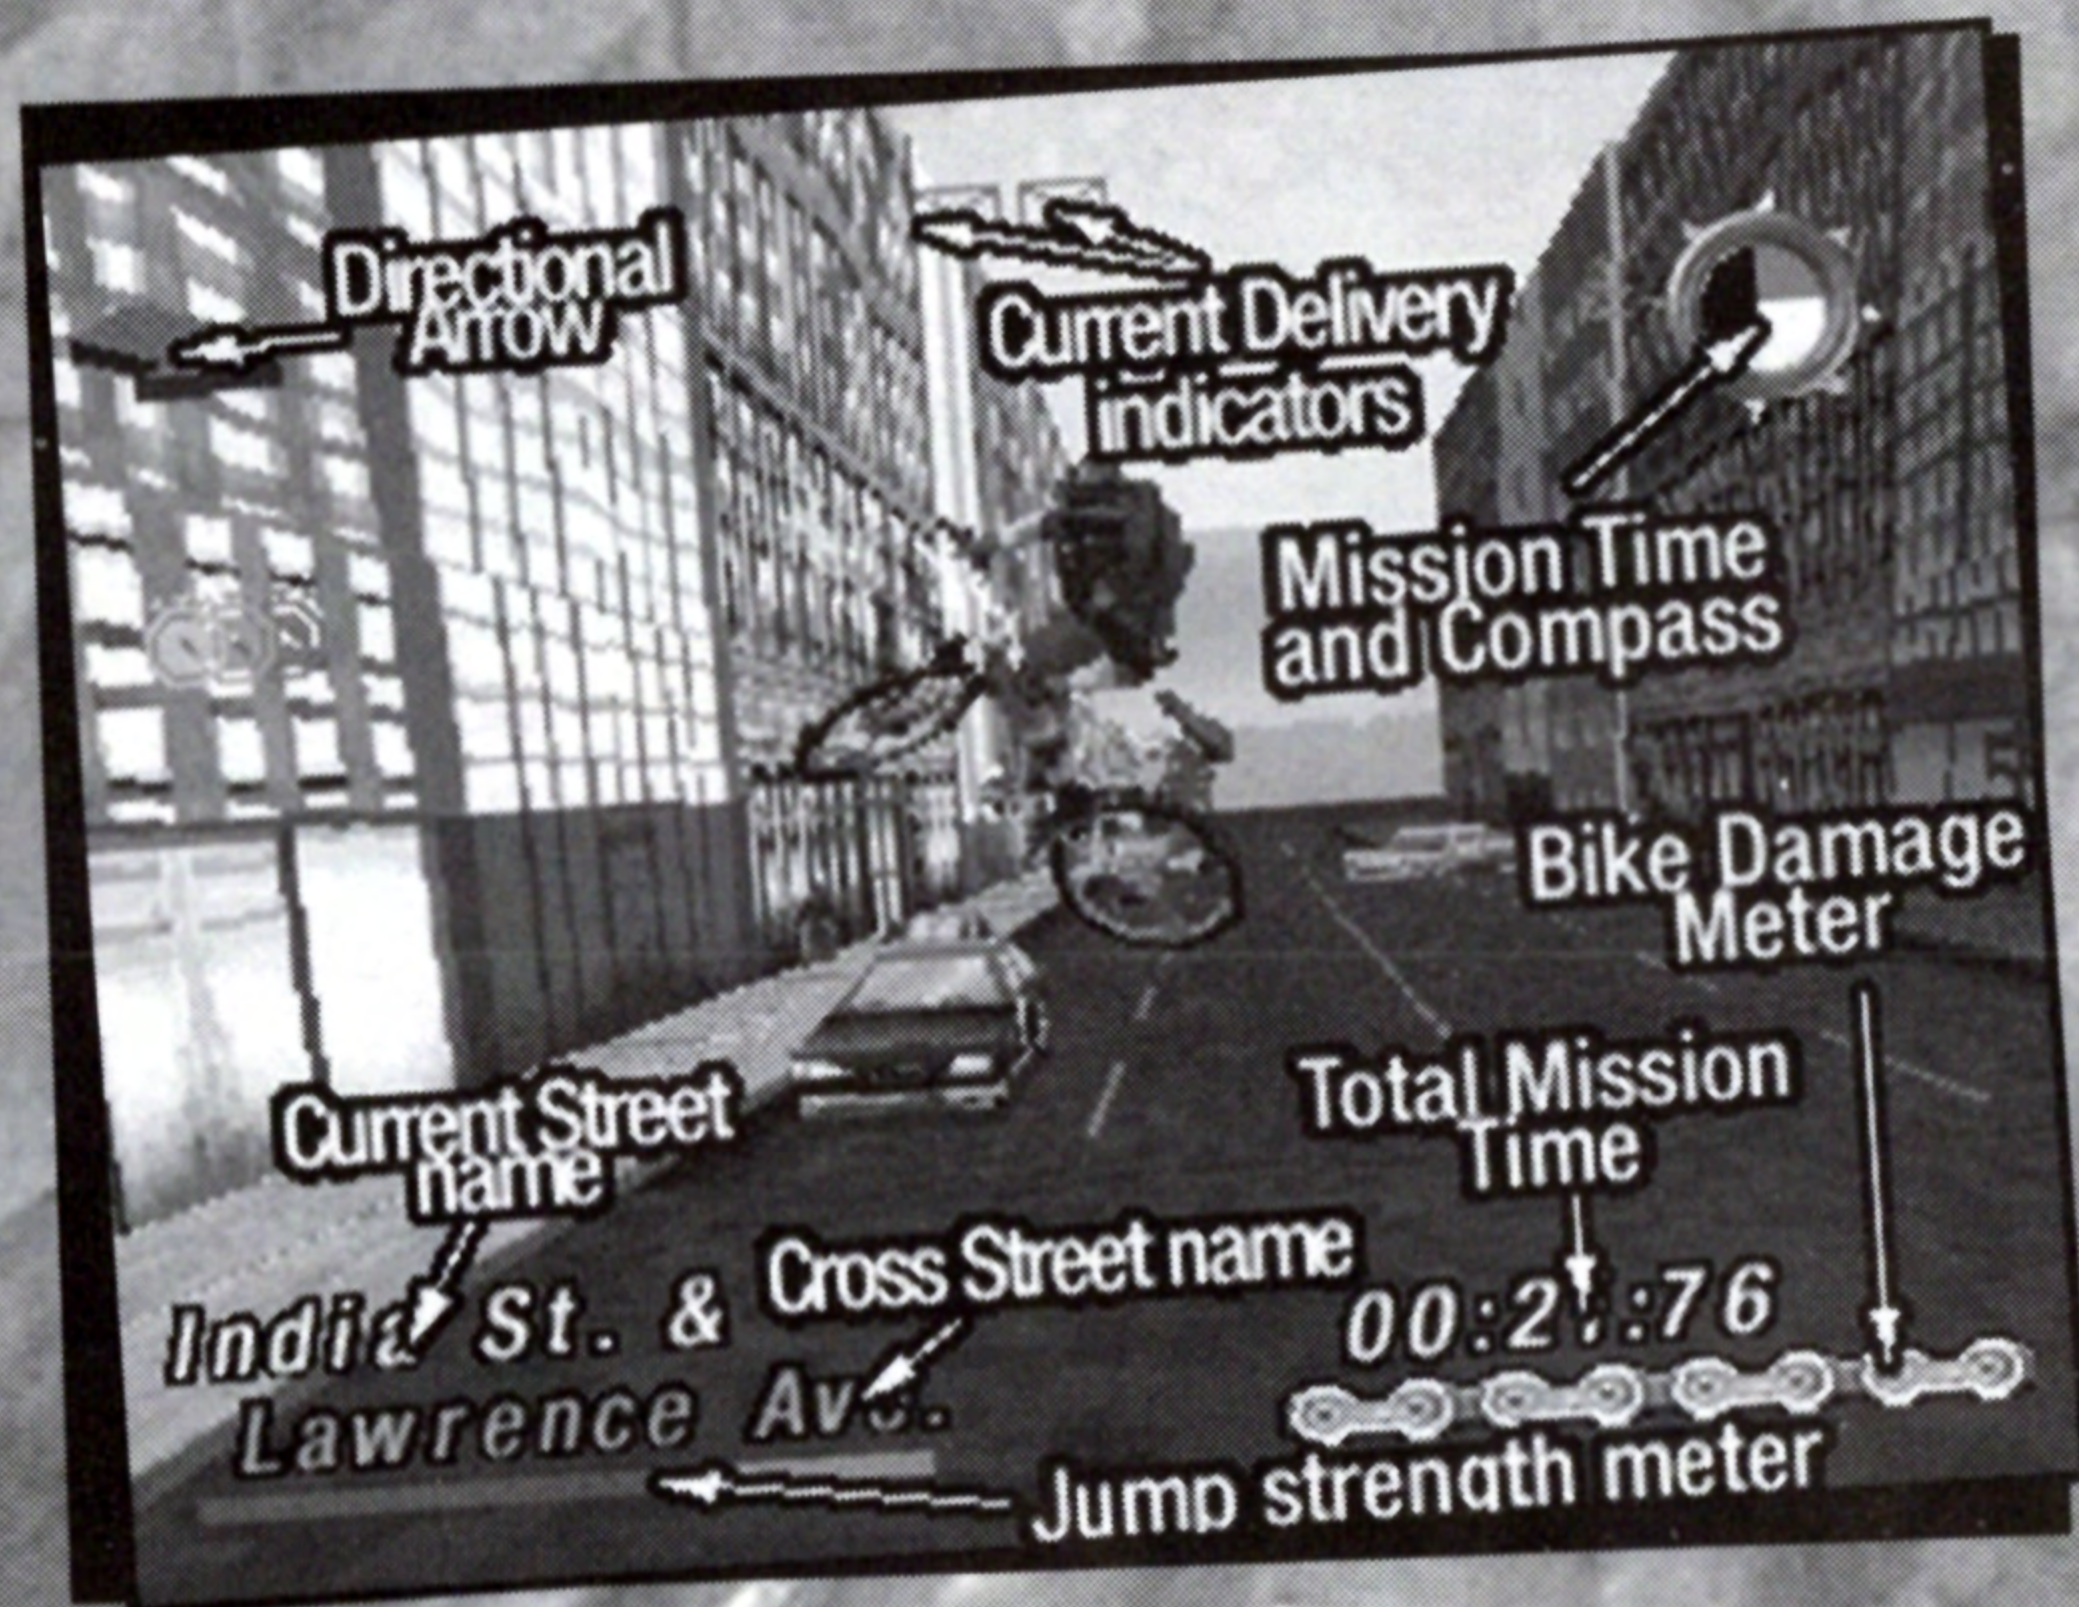

WRECKED MENU: If you totally thrashed your bike you get this menu.

If you've been fired, busted, or you've wrecked out, you can restart the level by pressing the Start button, then use the Restart option from the Pause Menu, .

By selecting Restart you can start the mission afresh without waiting for the graphics sets to reload. By selecting Quit you return to the Main Menu where you can go to the bike shop to buy a different bike, save or load a game, or change game options.

IN-GAME SCREEN

The following screen is typical of the screens you will encounter as you play the game. (Hint: it's actually much more fun to play the game than to stare at this screen, but hey, whatever turns you on).

RIDING STYLES

GOIN' FOR SPEED:

You gotta have speed to be a successful courier. Use the Pedal Button at every opportunity. Too much speed and you won't be able to hold the bike through the corners, or you'll come up short on the turn and pile into the nearest wall.

Use the brakes to scrub off speed before a turn. Double tapping the Brake Button will lock up the rear wheel for extra braking power.

BOUNCING:

Bouncing is a technique used by trail bike riders like Hans Rey. In this technique the rider actually bounces his bike up and down, making minor adjustments in order to keep his balance. You can use this method to hop over or on large objects without having to catch air off a ramp.

In Courier Crisis, if you're stationary (stopped), you can hold the Bunny Hop button to charge up for a bounce hop. The more you bounce the higher you can go. The length of the Bunny Hop meter also affects your jump height. If you hold the button too long, and the hop meter maxes out, you'll lose your balance. When jumping off ramps, release the bunny hop button right as you leave the ramp for maximum air time.

PULL'N TRICKS

It is essential to pull tricks at every opportunity. Not only for style's sake but also to earn critical game play power ups. Each trick has an associated power up. For instance, an Air 360° will take time off the mission clock. Indispensable!

| Power Up | Trick to Get Power Up | What it Does | How to Use it |
|---|-----------------------|--|-----------------------------|
|  | Table Top | Adds speed burst | Double tap Pedal button |
|  | Air 360° | Decreases mission clock | Immediate |
|  | Cross Up | Adds links back to chain (restores bike health) | Immediate |
|  | Back Flip | Confuses cops for 20 seconds while star blinks beneath mission clock | Immediate |
|  | Spread Eagle | Immediate bunny hop height (no wait for charge up) | Double tap Bunny Hop button |

TABLE TOP: D-pad-UP & R2 (D-pad-UP & L2 for backside)
This gives you a speed burst power up. Double tap the Pedal Button to get an extra burst of pedaling power!

AIR 360°: D-pad-DOWN & R1 (D-pad-DOWN & L1 for backside)
The Air 360° takes crucial seconds off of the mission clock. By holding the trick buttons you can continue to rotate. A 720° or greater will take even more time off the clock. You start each mission with 3 clocks, once those are used up 360's no longer have an effect on the mission timer (could there be secret ramps that re-up your clocks???).

CROSS UP: D-pad-DOWN & R2 (D-pad-DOWN & L2 for backside)
Health Power Up: This puts links back on your chain, or fixes damage on your bike.

SPREAD EAGLE: D-pad-Up &

The Spread Eagle will give you Double-Bunny power ups. When a blue bunny power up icon is displayed on the upper left of the screen, you can double tap the Bunny Hop button to get an immediate full height bunny hop without waiting for the Bunny Hop meter to charge.

BACK FLIP: D-pad-Down &

The Back Flip will temporarily confuse the cops. This is an easy way to make the cops dumber than they already are! This has no effect if the cops aren't on your tail.

AIR TIME:

You can hold The Cross Up, Spread Eagle, and Table Top for as long as you hold the trick combo buttons. This not only lets you project ultimate expression and style but holding the trick long enough allows you to get a full supply of the trick's corresponding power up.

MISSION REPLAY

You can replay a mission that you've already finished to get a better time and more money. If you replay and get a worse time, you're stuck with the results from your last attempt.

PLAY IT WITH STYLE

Ya gotta have style. If there's a car in your way, Wheelie over it instead of dodging around it. Better yet, bunny hop the whole thing and pull a trick so you can keep all your power ups charged up to the max. Besides looking way cooler, using your power ups will greatly reduce your time through missions, allowing you to buy way better bikes sooner.

DIS THA POLICE

Give the cops the fist shake (rude gesture). While this may irritate them, their sirens clear the streets of other traffic, making hi-speed a little less dangerous. Use the backflip to confuse the cops if they're on your tail.
