WITNESS THE BIRTH OF LIFE . . .

In the ever expanding universe floats a mysterious sphere.

– Amuneria, the Green Mother Planet

The life born on this planet experienced civilization and war and the repeated danger of destruction. Out of this confusion came a boy who brought an end to the chaos. His name was Amuneria. The people bestowed his name on their planet and no one ever came forth to challenge his strength and spirit as their savior.

TIME GOES ON . . .

In Amuneria's bloodline dwelled a mysterious power, revealing itself generation after generation. The King of Blazar in the 21st century was no exception.

The King was a serious scientist, absorbed in research for a new energy source. Amuneria had used the energy generated in the land known as Caju. Although Caju gave life to Amuneria, it did not have unlimited resources. A serious energy shortage was developing.

In the Amunerian year 547, the King of Blazar discovered the means for generating desperately needed energy. The problem of Amuneria's energy needs was completely solved. As people's lives began to improve, the wise King announced that he would develop the energy for everyone in the universe. Once he made the announcement, Amuneria became the mother planet. We entered into an era of great prosperity.

Because of that day, I promised to bring everyone to the new land. People emigrated to Blazar, the first of two moons that orbit Amuneria, and 50 years passed. This was the most peaceful era in history.

However, the mistake made 600 years ago is repeating itself today . . . .

GENOCIDE

The Black Magic Power [A.N.] and the Enigmatic Invaders

When Masa, the other moon that orbits Amuneria, was targeted for possession by Blazar, tensions between the Masa natives and the new immigrants burst their limits.

War broke out. As the violence grew, Masa scientists who had been researching weapons of mass destruction succeeded in developing a weapon with black magic. They called it the "All Nothing" – a weapon that could literally destroy everything. One flash from this weapon and Blazar would be wiped out of the universe.

People on both sides threw down their arms when they realized this new threat, and war ceased. This began a period of peace and prosperity. At the same time, in the Amunerian year 609, a new life was born in whose body flowed Amuneria's blood. This child, the last Amuneria since the great war, became the 25th king.

Many people were in an uproar over the birth of the new king. The baby's ability to see into the future (a power referred to as "The Light") revealed that they would be dragged into the cruel fate of Amuneria. "Prepare yourselves! They are coming!" were the first words the child-king spoke.

Three years later "they" came. Although the King's Universal Royal Army set up an ambush on Masa, several hours after the first flash Masa was completely destroyed. At the same time, two-thirds of the population perished. The King's reconnaissance revealed what power it was that the enemy had brought into battle: the people were attacked by an unknown invader called Thiima, meaning "Deliverer of Death."

BIRTH OF THE SILVER HAWK

We can no longer go on.

The Amunerian civilization cannot fight against Thiima.

The King's final order was to create a fighting craft that combined the power of Thiima and the black magic power of the A.N. to destroy planets. The scientists pondered the King's directives. Then they loaded an All Nothing machine onto enemy vessels captured in the battle of Masa, and built two state-of-the-art fighter crafts. The ships were called Silver Hawk after the legendary bird that ushered in the reign of Amuneria the First.

The main body of the enemy's army will soon arrive. The remaining pilots of the Royal Universal Army, Sameluck Raida and Lutia Feen, have readied themselves to pilot the Silver Hawk. The King of Amuneria congratulates the two young pilots who will fly the small Silver Hawk, and wishes them good luck.

Can he foresee their destiny . . . ?

SAMELUCK RAIDA (PLAYER 1)

Specially trained pilot for the (red) Silver Hawk 1, Sameluck was the test pilot for the ARCF-06A, the original Silver Hawk when it was under development. When its original pilot was killed in a battle against Thiima, Sameluck Raida became its pilot.

Sameluck has a balanced temperament. He is not so competitive that he holds others back from taking part and succeeding, but when things get tough, he never backs away.

He meets Lutia when he becomes the pilot of the Silver Hawk.

LUTIA FEEN (PLAYER 2)

Lutia is the special pilot for the (blue) Silver Hawk 2. When she heard the King of Amuneria announce that Thiima was returning, she decided to become a prodigy pilot. She was only 11 at the time, but by practicing numerous missions in dogfights using the flight simulator, she became an ace pilot.

Lutia lost her entire family in the battle against Thiima. Now she shows almost no feelings or emotions of any kind in front of others. But after meeting Sameluck, who has had experiences like hers, she has begun to smile again.

Lutia denies that her natural skills as a pilot stem from her rumored kinship to Amuneria. Even Lutia herself is not sure if she has family ties to the King and his famous ancestors.

SILVER HAWK

Military Designation:	ARCF-ROTA PLUS
Alias:	Silver Hawk
Occupant:	1
Height:	14.815 meters
Length:	26.55 meters
Width:	20.713 meters

This state of the art fighter was developed to counter the enemy's powerful Thiima and the All Nothing (A.N.) system.

The A.N. system is hyper-technology, with the power to eradicate the universe step by step. The Silver Hawk acquired the enemy's engine's life core. By combining with it, the Silver Hawk can control the A.N. system. In this capturing system, the A.N. has the ability to replenish its energy from enemy craft by converting an enemy vessel's energy into an attached Alpha Beam.

THIIMA

This unidentified mechanical life attacked Amuneria without warning. With the appearance of the A.N. and its ability to annihilate the universe, a period of survival awareness has begun. Thiima's purpose is to protect the peace in the universe. Its body is covered with hard metal-like material. It has flexible movement and speed, and a destructive power that makes it a super machine, and nearly impossible to destroy.

ASSAULT ROUTES

Sameluck and Lutia head out from Amuneria to engage Thiima at the enemy's main base, located in the Rakia quadrant of the Milky Way system. The routes they take along the way will lead each of them to a different fate.

Select a Zone by pressing the Directional buttons up/down and pressing the X button. The Zone you select determines the difficulty level of the next battle.

Battle through all the Zones alone or join forces with a friend. Your combat tactics against battleships and the number of power-ups that appear vary with each area.

- Destroy enemy ships to complete the Zones.
- Check the battle conditions and strengths of your Hawk at each Turning Point in a Zone, and then select your next route.

To use a Turning Point:

- Verify your Hawk's position before the time gauge in the center of the screen disappears.
- Your Hawk's position (upper or lower area of the screen) when the time gauge runs out determines your next route.

BEGINNER MODE

Practice your attacks in different difficulty modes, with varying equipment levels. Press the Directional buttons left/right to select a fighter, and press the X button to confirm. Press the ▲ button to cancel and return to the Main Menu.

FIGHTER	EQUIPMENT

- When you continue, you return to the equipment levels you had at the start of play.
- There are no cinema sequences at the end of the Zones you clear.

VS. BOSS MODE

Take on all the enemy battleships from Arcade Mode. Press the Directional buttons up/down to select a Zone and left/right to select a setting or turn OFF (i.e., select not to battle). Choose several battleships and you can do continuous battles. Press the ▲ button to cancel the settings and return to the Main Menu.

- When you are attacked, you can't lose all your power.
- When you continue, you return to the equipment levels you had at the start of play.
- Use Option Mode to give yourself unlimited ships and Credits.

Power-Up

Power-ups appear when you engage a specific enemy. During flight formations, don't let the different colored enemies escape. Instead, destroy them!

Advance to the next level when you get a certain number of items and your abilities greatly increase. When you are shot down, you return equipped with the minimum equipment and weapons needed for that level.

HOW TO CAPTURE

Silver Hawk can use most of the powers of its enemies after it captures them.

- To shoot a Capture Ball, use the Directional buttons to aim at the enemy and press the X button.
- Captured enemy ships lose their shield strength when shot at or when they hit the ground. When their shield strength reaches 0, they are destroyed.

Note: You need to have at least one Capture Ball in order to use this tactic.

ATTACKS AFTER CAPTURE

After an enemy is captured, you can use any of its remaining shields to protect yourself in an attack. You can also use one of the following attacks.

CONTROL	ATTACK
X button	Use captured bombs to dodge explosions.
● button	Use the captured vessel to attack.
● button	Hold down the button for a short time and then release it to fire a super-powerful Alpha Beam.

Note: If you use the bomb or Alpha Beam, you lose the captured ship.

CAPTURING MID-SIZE BATTLESHIPS

The Capture Ball can catch mid-sized battleships (after destroying their Solidnite shields, see pg. 20) and use their powerful attacking strength.

When capturing mid-sized battleships, unleash stronger attacks by pressing special button combinations.

ZONES	ATTACKS	BUTTON COMBOS
Alpha ( $\alpha$ )	First Captain	↓, ↓ + →, →, ●

Nu ( $\nu$ )	Dream Tender	←, ↓, ↓ + ←, ●

COUNTER BEAM DEFENSE

All of the enemy's huge battleships are equipped with a Beta Beam, a weapon as powerful as the Silver Hawk's Alpha Beam. But when this weapon is used against itself, it causes enormous damage to its own battleship.

- When enemy battleships start to replenish their Beta Beam, do the same with your Alpha Beam.
- When the Beta Beam is released, immediately release the Alpha Beam to counterattack.
- Press and hold the ■ button to release the Counter Beam and destroy the Beta Beam.
- You can hit an attacker with a Counter Beam up to four times its size (Quad Counter Beam).

DESTROYING SOLIDNITE

Capture Balls and Counter Beams cannot penetrate enemies shielded with the gold metal known as Solidnite. Solidnite is molded onto a ship in increasing thicknesses, resulting in more indestructible forms. Some types of this shielding are Solidnite, Solid Missile, Rei Solid Plus and Rei Yakuza Takarmy. Enemies shielded with Solidnite can only be destroyed with shots and bombs in group attacks.

ATTACKING ENEMY BATTLESHIPS

Attack the weakness of the boss enemy battleships to defeat them. When their shield strength reaches 0, they are destroyed.

ZONE	BATTLESHIP	WEAKNESS	SHIELD STRENGTH
Alpha ( $\alpha$ )	Eclipse Eye	Entire body	Head: 2,850
