FIGHTING STYLES

Knockout Kings 2001 has four fighting styles: boxer, slugger, freestyle, and crab style.

BOXER

The classic boxing style. This boxer keeps his arms up at all times and throws punches from that position. He throws most of the standard boxing punches and has a good selection of linked punches to choose from.

SLUGGER

Slugger boxers are all about big punches. The slugger style has punches that do more damage than a regular boxer's, but they take longer to throw. The slugger style has less of a selection of linked punches to choose from.

FREESTYLE

Fight like Ali. The footwork is on the toes, almost dance-like. His hands are relaxed and at the side, but shoot up quickly to parry or attack. The freestyle is most similar to the boxer style but has different combinations available.

CRAB STYLE

The Crab Style, made famous by Ken Norton, is a slugger hybrid. The style uses the arms as a wall of defense, always held in front – not unlike a crab in a defensive posture.

STARTING AN EXHIBITION FIGHT

Fight as your favorite boxer and prove you can handle the pummeling.

QUICK START: To get into the ring now, without messing with the details, choose PLAY NOW from the Main menu.

5. To select an arena, press the D-Button  and press X when your arena is shown to advance to the ring.
-  To skip the walk and get straight to the ring, press START.

PENALTIES/STOPPAGES

The big differences between the Slugfest ( p. 15) and the Exhibition modes are penalties and stamina. Watch the low blows, kidney punches, etc. If the ref catches you, he may warn you and then penalize you with each following infraction. Rack up too many penalties and he'll disqualify you.

-  The ref can also stop the fight if a boxer is cut and bleeding too much.
-  To set the length of an Exhibition bout, select OPTIONS from the Main menu, go to RULES, then set the Number of rounds.

INSIDE THE ROPES

Swinging wildly won't win you any titles. Listen to your corner man and keep an eye on your health and stamina meters.

GAME SCREEN

STAMINA METER —

The Stamina Meter shows how much gas you have left in your tank. Get in the yellow and your boxer will be slower and does less damage. Get too tired and you aren't able to punch at all.
