H O W T O P L A Y

The player can set traps or use projectile weapons on a 3D battlefield in order to kill the enemy. The player has to come up with his own strategy in order to succeed. However, the other player is also attempting to do the same. Each character has a variety of weapons at his/her disposal to reduce their opponents' Health to 0 within the time limit. You can do damage by kicking or punching or attacking with projectile weapons. The player can also collect items and power-ups that appear in the P.O.D.S. (Power Object Delivery System). The power-ups can recover health, add bombs, detonators, and traps. (For details look on page 24.)

SETTING TRAPS

The  button can set the trap which is highlighted in the trap selection box. You can scroll through your available traps by using the L1 or R1 button. When you are holding down the  button while you are setting a bomb trap, the range of the explosion will be highlighted in red. Once the trap is used, it will return to your trap inventory after a certain amount of time. For the details of trap effects, see page 23.

PLACES WHERE YOU CANNOT SET TRAPS.

1. P.O.D.S. (Power Object Delivery System)
2. Stairs
3. Slopes
4. Conveyer Belts
5. Place where another trap is already set.

CAUTION MODE: TO DISCOVER A TRAP THE ENEMY HAS SET.

Hold down the  Button to go into Caution Mode. This is also known as the Trap Search Mode. If an enemy's trap is within the range of the Caution Mode (the blocks highlighted in blue), a marker will appear where the enemy's trap is located. If you want to move while in Caution Mode, keep the  Button held down and use the Directional Buttons to move around.

DISARM AN ENEMY'S TRAP

In order to disarm an enemy's trap, you must first touch the trap while in Caution Mode. This will cancel the trap. After doing this a screen will pop up prompting you to enter a particular button sequence. This is the Disarming Code. If you exceed the disarm time limit(it will show 0 on the screen) or enter the wrong Disarming Code, the trap will detonate or activate. Also, if you are hit with a projectile or direct attack, the trap will automatically detonate or activate.

When you successfully disarm a trap, the enemy will lose the trap and your Healer will go up a little.

RETRIEVE A TRAP YOU HAVE SET

When you touch your own trap while in Caution Mode, you can retrieve it. You will be asked if you want to retrieve the trap or not. Press the  button to place the trap back in your stock. If you want to cancel the command, press the  button.

DIRECT ATTACK

Be careful, as you are vulnerable while you are reloading your weapon. There is no limitation on how many times you can reload.

2. HAND-TO-HAND ATTACK

When the enemy is in close proximity to your own character, you can attack your opponent by either kicking or punching. A hit from any character will knock down the enemy. Meaning, if your opponent has a unit in his possession when you knock them down, you will break their "Unit". Also, if you knock the enemy down, you can use the "Unit" weapon to inflict massive damage to your downed opponent. (For more details look on page 25. # ITEM

You can get items in these two places.

P.O.D.S. (POWER OBJECT DELIVERY SYSTEM)

This is a place where power up items will appear. These are transferring devices used by GAIN to transport illegal goods and weapons.

OBSTACLE BOX (OBSTACLE CONTAINER)

You can destroy these by using your projectile weapon or bomb traps. Sometimes you can get hidden items after destroying these containers.

LIST OF ITEMS There are five different items.

TRAP ITEMS

You will have one trap added to your inventory.

SPEED UP

Your character's moving speed will double for 20 seconds.

PROTECT

Your Character will be protected for 8 seconds. This means you will be invincible against direct attacks and traps. However, you cannot avoid the Plasma Unit.

UNIT

An experimental Plasma weapon.

HEALER

You will recover some of your Healer.

UNIT

The "Unit" is an experimental Plasma weapon developed by GAIN. It contains a semi-sentient form of Plasma that can home in on its intended target. The Plasma Launcher itself is very fragile and can be broken if the enemy knocks you down. The number of Plasma Bombs that can be launched is limited and takes quite a bit of time to charge it. You need to know when you can use it. (If you are attacked during the charge, the Plasma Bomb will not be launched). The number of Plasma Bombs will be displayed on the Radar Map.

HOW TO AVOID THE PLASMA BOMB

1. JUST RUN UNTIL THE UNIT DISAPPEARS

The Plasma Bomb will disappear after a certain amount of time. When you are running away, be careful not to step on a trap the enemy has set. When you go to a relatively open place, run around in a circle. This is the easiest way to run away from the Plasma Bomb.

2. GO UNDERNEATH A BRIDGE OR CATWALK

Most of the maps have bridges or overhead walkways. However, when the Unit hits the bridge, the bridge will be destroyed and you will lose that pathway. The floor underneath bridges and catwalks are usually designed differently compared to a normal floor. The area under bridges will be highlighted in blue on the Radar Map. Make sure you get to that area before the Plasma Bomb gets you.

3. SHOOT THE ENEMY

If you shoot an enemy who is about to launch a Plasma Bomb this will interrupt the Plasma Charge and keep him from launching the Plasma Bomb. Also, if the enemy has launched or is about to launch a Plasma Bomb, knock him down with a hand-to-hand attack and you will cancel the Plasma Bomb. Otherwise, just kill the enemy before the Plasma Bomb gets to you.

4. INVOKE EXPLOSION

When the Plasma collides with an explosion, it will disappear. The damage of a Plasma Bomb is much greater than a Mine. Try to time the explosion of an enemy's Mine, so that the explosion will take out the Plasma Bomb.

TRAP GUNNER Q & A

Q1 I DON'T KNOW WHERE TO SET TRAPS.

A You definitely want to place traps where the enemy is most likely to go through. These are the areas where you want to set traps. The top or bottom of stairs and slopes, intersections, T junctions, around Power Plants, and under bridges. These are the most frequent locations where an enemy may go. Of course, don't forget that the enemy is setting traps as well.

Q2 HOW DO YOU GET RID OF AN ENEMY'S TRAP?

A The best way is to disarm it. When the enemy is not around, and the enemy's weapon ammo is at 0, this is the best time to disarm a trap. The disarming code is simple. If you do not enter in the code in haste, you will not make mistakes and get blown up.

Q3 WHAT DO I DO WHEN THE ENEMY HAS SET A SWITCH DETONATOR?

A The Switch Detonator can be set off while you are trying to disarm it. You have to watch your opponent and make sure he/she cannot detonate the Switch Detonator. The best time is when the enemy has fallen into a Pitfall or thrown by an Force Panel. Also, another good time is when the enemy is charging the Unit. Another way is to trick the opponent into setting it off early. You should try and get as close to the trap as possible then immediately run away. Sometimes the enemy will detonate the bomb.

Q4 WHAT SHOULD I DO WHEN THE ENEMY HAS A "UNIT"?

A When the enemy has a Unit, he cannot attack you with their ordinary sidearm. This is your chance to disarm their traps. If a Plasma Bomb is launched, check it's position on the Radar and avoid getting hit. It is ideal to get to the Unit before the enemy does.

Q5 I DON'T KNOW HOW TO DEAL WITH MAPS WITH DIFFERENT LEVELS OF GROUND.

A Some maps have intricate geography. Press the R2 Button to change the camera angle. Then you can see more of the map.

Q6 ARE THE SUB-BOSSSES PLAYABLE AND ARE THERE ANY HIDDEN FEATURES IN THE GAME?

A Yes... Try beating the game on "NORMAL" with all of the characters.
